THE AUDITORIUM.

A beautiful picture is being offered at the Auditorium today, "The Rosary," by Edward E. Rose, produced by Selig, in seven reels and featuring Kathlyn Williams and Wheeler Oakman. "The Rosary" tells a most beautiful story and as a play was a great success. It is filled with thrills and heart throbs with a clever love story running all through. It was presented on the stage of the Auditorium a few years ago and drew an enormous house being particularly attractive to the women. Tomorrow's bill has been selected especially for the children for something good is in store for them, 5,000 rulers are to be given away which are very useful for school work and come just in the nick of time just as school is opening for the year. The program contains, "The Dawn of Understanding," a two-reel Vitaphone drama with Maurice Costello and Leah Baird; "On the Wrong Track," a "safety-first" film produced in cooperation with Public Service Railway Co. of New Jersey; "Mr. Jarr and Circumstantial Evidence," a Vitaphone comedy; "Beyond His Fondest Hopes," a Pathe comedy; "Dreamy Dud Sees Charley Chaplin," an Essanay comedy, and the Selig weekly of current news showing many scenes of interest.

SEATS ON SALE TOMORROW.

The sale of seats for the opening week of the Oliver Drama players will open at the Oliver box office tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock when seats may be secured for any performance during the week. Very moderate prices have been arranged the matinees being 10 cents with the exception of a few rows in front which will be reserved at 25 cents. At night the prices will be 30 cents for all seats on the main floor and 10 and 20 cents in the balcony and the gallery 10 cents. The opening play will be, "The Cost of Living," written by William Anthony McGuire, a former Notre Dame student and who is also the author of "The Divorce Question" which was played at the Oliver a couple seasons ago. "The Cost of Living" will be given for the first four days and on Thursday afternoon "The Lore" will be presented to run for the balance of the week.

AT THE INDIANA.

Today's feature picture at the Indiana was written by a former resident of South Bend, William Anthony McGuire. Mr. McGuire was a student at Notre Dame when he took up the profession of play writing and his success has been remarkable. At one time he had four companies playing "The Divorce Question." Since entering the motion picture field he has been equally successful and today at the Indiana will be seen "The Sky Hunters," which is from his pen. On the same program will be seen a sentimental drama from the Edison studio, "For Her Mother."

AT THE LASALLE.

Something of the Paris which Americans go abroad to see and never find forms the basis of a series of scenes in the new Lasalle Feature Co.'s release entitled "The Secret Orchard" from the play by Channing Pollock, founded on the novel of the same name by Ames and Egerton Castle. Miss Blanche Sweet is the star in the production which will be shown today at the LaSalle. The opening scenes present a life-like picture of Parisian life of the demimonde. The atmosphere of the great city of light is maintained throughout these parts with a surety of producers' skill which has led those who have seen the photodrama to question the statement that the film was not made in Paris itself but at the Jesse L. Lasky Co. studio at Hollywood, Calif. Miss Sweet

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine."—Mrs. S. T. RICHMOND, 84 Progress Avenue, Providence, R. I.

From Mrs. Maria Irwin, Peru, N.Y.

PERU, N.Y.—"Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was very irregular and had much pain. I had lost three children, and felt worn out all the time. This splendid medicine helped me as nothing else had done, and I am thankful every day that I took it."—Mrs. MARIA IRWIN, R.F.D. 1, Peru, N.Y.

From Mrs. Jane D. Duncan, W. Quincy, Mass.

SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—"The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living."—Mrs. JANE D. DUNCAN, Forest Avenue, West Quincy, Mass.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MISS ELSIE CORBIN INGENUE OLIVER PLAYERS, STARTING ON SUNDAY.

as the heroine in this play accomplishes some of her finest dramatic work. Also "A Sea Shore Romance," a comedy, will be shown. Three interesting pictures of varied subjects will be shown on Saturday. "Driven by Fate," a three reel drama concerning stage life and introducing as the principal character an actress, and a city cabaret scene will be shown. A Keystone comedy in two parts, "Rascal's Wolfish Way," and a Paramount travel picture will also be shown.

AT DREAMLAND.

A successful Rainbow dancing party was held last evening at Dreamland, Springbrook. Tonight another feature event—the popular dancing pavilion—will be termed "A Flower Festival." Hundreds of floral pieces will be decorated the building, the music will be appropriate and the affair promises to be most enjoyable. Miss Ruby Higgins, the social hostess, is in charge.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

The new bill which opened at the Orpheum Thursday features Al Fields and company in a comedy talking act. A burlesque cab scene is used for the opening and a dialogue between Mr. Fields and his assistants furnish the entertainment. Edward Farrell and company present a comedy sketch, "After the Wedding." Two well dressed couples represent the newlyweds and a mix-up of identities gives excuse for much confusion which is amusing. Leonard entertains with classical and popular selections on the violin and guitar. Sabbath and Wright open the performance with clever dancing and the show closes with Berziac's circus, introducing ponies and a bucking mule.

TURKS BURN ARMENIANS ALIVE TO EXTERMINATE

Fire Buildings and When Inhabitants Attempt to Flee Machine Guns Are Turned on Them.

MITTLENE, Sept. 10.—Horrible details are reaching here as to the methods employed by the Turks in their policy of exterminating Armenians.

In one large village of 2,000 homes, inhabited exclusively by Armenians, the gendarmes first sent an order to the inhabitants to evacuate the village. The villagers took no notice of the order. Then 200 soldiers appeared with orders to enforce obedience. The Armenians resisted and in the ensuing fight the Turkish soldiers were worsted and forced to flee.

Battalions of troops then established a cordon around the village. Machine guns were set in place and incendiaries sent into the village with lighted torches. Buildings were fired in every direction and soon the whole village was in flames. The miserable Armenians, men, women and children, were almost all burned alive. Those who tried to escape were shot. Only four escaped, one of whom related the story.

In other instances the Turks are separating the men from the women and children and the able bodied men are drafted into the Turkish army, while the young women are sold to harems. The old men, the old women and the children are turned loose in uninhabited districts.

"MARRYING POLLY" DEAD

Woman Wedded 13 Times Dies of Excitement Over Damage Suit.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 10.—Mrs. Polly Anne Weed Strodes, 69 years old, widely known as "Marrying Polly," because she had been married 13 times, is dead at her home here.

Death is believed due to heart failure following excitement because of a $10,000 damage suit filed against her by James Handley. Handley was shot and badly disfigured by Harrison Strodes, 13th husband of "Marrying Polly," and he alleged that the woman urged the shooting.

She subsequently filed suit for divorce against Strodes, declaring her intention to marry a 14th time.
